

HKU-Cambridge
Clean Energy & Environment
Research Platform

HKU-Cambridge Clean Energy & Environment Research Platform Seminar
Climate Change after COP21: Implications for China
2:30-5:30pm, Tuesday, 16 February 2016
Meng Wah Complex T7, the University of Hong Kong

- 2:00-2:30pm Registration
- 2:30-2:40pm Welcome Speech
Professor Paul Cheung, Director of the Technology Transfer Office, the University of Hong Kong
- 2:40-2:50pm Introductory Speech
Professor Victor OK Li, Chair Professor of Information Engineering and Platform Director
- 2:50-3:00pm Introductory Speech
Dr. David Reiner, Senior Lecturer and Course Director, MPhil in Technology Policy, Judge Business School, the University of Cambridge
- 3:00-3:30pm Air Pollution, Health Costs and Social Justice in China
Professor Victor OK Li and Dr. Jacqueline CK Lam, the University of Hong Kong
- 3:30-4:00pm Coffee Break
- 4:00-5:00pm Climate Change and Carbon Capture Storage (CCS) Policies in the UK: Lessons for China
Dr. David Reiner, the University of Cambridge
- 5:00-5:30pm Is CCS a good solution to mitigate CO₂ emissions in China?
Professor Dennis YC Leung, the University of Hong Kong